

JOHN KAMPOUROPOULOS

ARTIST BIO

John Kampouropoulos is a diverse performer and songwriter, telling stories from the present, the past and the future, all wrapped into a shell of different musical colours. Being around in the music scene for more than 30 years, he has participated in various bands as a singer and co-songwriter, prominently being a member of the greek english-spoken band Closer (EMI/Chrysalis). For the next few years he'd run his own band "KAMP", to whom he was the main composer, singer, songwriter, as well as producer and promoter. Since 2017 he has been working as a solo artist, responsible for all the creative part - a composer, arranger, recordist, mixer, master engineer, producer and publisher of his own material. He has been performing in various venues, as well as live-streamed over 400 live streams the past 4 years.

▶ A FEW COMMENTS:

- ▶ ""John Kampouropoulos is a very talented person, not only as an artist, but as a musical wanderer as well. Both his music and performance can be both soul-soothing and mind triggering. It is, undoubtedly, a unique experience listening to him." - Stella Goulinouidi, CEO and Artistic Director for Alcyone Records.
- ▶ "A brilliant songwriter I've met back in his "KAMP" band days, and still keeping track of his musical work which, I am pleased to say, has only best elements to convey. He's a pro and treats his deep and emotional music with the same respect, something we don't see quite often in music industry." - Jordan Kiourtsidis, editor for rockway.gr
- ▶ "Your music is unique, John, rarely have I experienced such feeling and execution." Mike Manley, Giving Gigs Director and Head of "Pit4Music" INC, QLD, AUS.
