DAISY VALENTINE

ABOUT

Daisy Valentine has returned to the unsigned music scene with a bang!

She is a multi-instrumentalist, songwriter, DJ and producer from Stockport. Daisy is embarking upon a brand new solo career after leaving previous band, Fuzzy Sun, in 2019. Having spent the last two years honing in on her craft in solitude, writing and producing all of her tracks alone, she's ready to share her 'Tabula Rasa' EP with the world.

In her music, you will find a fusion of pop and electronic genres, emulating tones ranging from the likes of Tame Impala to Mac Miller. The use of bold 80's synths brings to mind artists such as Madonna and Human League. You'll find sweet, harmonious vocals over heavy, arpeggiated bass lines; creating a paradox of sound aesthetics that branches out to a variety of listening tastes. Her lyrics are so delicately stitched together; you can't help but become immersed in each song's narrative.

BACKGROUND

Daisy Valentine has DJ'd and performed across various venues in Manchester, Liverpool and The Balearic Islands. More recently, she was a founding member and synth player of the band Fuzzy Sun, with whom she toured the UK on headline tours and also as a support act with bands such as Blossoms, Two Door Cinema Club and The Wombats.

TABULA RASA

DAISY VALENTINE

Daisy launched her Debut EP on August 4th at Bask, Stockport. The sell out show welcomed her new music into the world in front of a mega 170 person audience.

"She plays all four songs from the Tabula Rasa EP, that was released at midnight after the show, with its opening track I Know Why first and its centrepiece It's Not Me It's You finishing off the set to rapturous roars from the crowd"
