

Avelia Moisey

Trumpet / Flugelhorn / Singer

www.avelia.co.uk

Avelia Moisey offers musical entertainment - singing, as well as playing trumpet and flugelhorn, with the accompaniment of lively backing tracks, performing a wide-ranging repertoire including jazz standards, show tunes & originals.

She continued to entertain during various lockdowns, via Facebook Live gigs, using the opportunity to reach new audiences and increase her repertoire further. Avelia has a proven track record in venues across Bucks, Herts & Oxon generating repeat bookings at venues such as Kents Hill, Milton Court, Mandeville Grange, Rayners Care Home, Trefoil, Aylesbury Visually Impaired Members' Club.

Avelia's first solo album, From the Shadows, was released in 2019, followed by 2 self-recorded singles in 2021.

Quotes from satisfied customers who have repeatedly booked Avelia:-

Oh it was fabulous ... we were still talking about it today ... Thank you again you are awesome.

[Our guests] love you ... soulful voice, jazz tone, plus trumpet - it's different ... adds to ambience. Old tunes done in a different way.

Brilliant gig. Great set and fabulous tunes. Thanks so much for entertaining us.

Feeling very mellow thank you. Great choice of tunes, fabulous singing and playing.

Avelia's solo set is provided as a self-contained unit with a small p.a. The only requirements from the client are a space in which to perform and sufficient light to see and be seen!

For larger scale events, Avelia can provide a duo - with pianist (keyboard provided by us) - trio, quartet or beyond to suit your budget and requirements.

As a professional trumpet player, Avelia has played in many West End show bands (including Cats, Jolson, Starlight Express, Oliver), on recordings, TV, radio & international tours, including tours with Marti Webb, and Jane McDonald.
