Get ready for a mind-blowing journey through the legendary sounds of Ibiza as you've never heard them before.

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a blue sequined dress and a green wristband, is singing into a microphone on stage. Her right arm is raised. In the background, a live orchestra is performing, with a saxophone player and a guitarist visible. The scene is lit with blue and green stage lights.

Symphonic Ibiza, curated by the dynamic DJ and Producer Andy Joyce (known for his electrifying sets at Pacha, Amnesia, Eden, and Café Mambo), along with the accomplished composer and musical director Steve Etherington, brings you an unforgettable fusion of iconic Ibiza dance anthems, live vocals, a sensational DJ, and an exhilarating live Orchestra.

This is the ultimate night of euphoric dancing, pulsating beats, and high-energy performances that will leave you craving for more.

Since its sensational launch at the renowned Ibiza super club Eden in 2018, Symphonic Ibiza has taken the island by storm. From a residency at the iconic Savannah on Ibiza's illustrious Sunset Strip in 2019 to a show-stopping performance at the legendary Ibiza Rocks Hotel, this extraordinary ensemble has solidified its place as the UK's only authentic Ibiza Orchestra.

In 2023, Symphonic Ibiza was honored to perform at the Saracens v Harlequins Rugby Showdown at Tottenham Stadium and the Gallagher Premiership Final at Twickenham Stadium, captivating audiences with their distinct blend of Ibiza vibes and orchestral grandeur.
